

CIVIL / TRANSPORTATION ENGINEER

(Internship)

Westbrook Associated Engineers, Inc. is an innovative civil engineering firm serving clients throughout the United States. Since our founding in 1974, we have completed thousands of quality engineering projects, ranging from construction inspections to forensic investigations to award-winning highway and bridge designs.

Position(s) Available:

- Internship Civil / Transportation Engineer

Job Description / Responsibilities:

- Take direction from engineers to assist with design related tasks while gaining experience and learning the skills necessary to carry out successful projects.
- Assist with transportation design and drafting including successfully completing projects on time and on budget.
- Work closely and assist on transportation projects including local bridge, road, highway, site development and other various civil designs.
- Construction Administration; on site field inspection of various transportation construction projects.

Education / Qualification Requirements:

- Qualified candidates will be working towards a B.S. in Civil Engineering with a transportation emphasis.
- Possess strong work ethic and communication skills; be responsible, dependable, creative, thorough, detail oriented, organized and accurate.
- Additional training in AutoCAD, Civil3D, Word and Excel preferred.

If you're interested in joining our team and excelling in the creative development of complex and challenging engineering solutions, email your resume with cover letter to: contactus@westbrookeng.com