

BRIDGE DESIGN ENGINEER

(Entry Level)

Westbrook Associated Engineers, Inc. is an innovative civil engineering firm serving clients throughout the United States. Since our founding in 1974, we have completed thousands of quality engineering projects, ranging from construction inspections to forensic investigations to award-winning highway and bridge designs.

Position(s) Available:

Full-time entry level Bridge Design Engineer I

Job Description / Responsibilities:

- Take direction from engineers to assist with design related tasks while gaining experience and learning the skills necessary to carry out successful projects.
- Assist with transportation design and drafting including successfully completing projects on time and on budget.
- Working with WisDOT, counties and municipalities to design bridges and other various civil designs.

Education / Qualification Requirements:

- Qualified candidates will have a B.S. in Civil Engineering with a structural emphasis.
- Possess strong computer literacy and excellent written and oral communication skills.
- Be highly organized to manage detailed project information and prioritize tasks.
- Additional training in AutoCAD, STAAD Pro, Civil3D, Word, and Excel preferred.

Company / Employee Benefits:

We offer a competitive compensation and benefit package, including:

- Paid time off (PTO), banked time and holidays
- Health, dental and vision insurance
- Short- and long-term disability, AD&D, life and voluntary life insurance
- Flex spending account
- Health savings account
- 401K Plan
- Bonus eligibility
- Computer purchase program
- Professional registration assistance
- Educational assistance program with endless opportunities for career growth

If you're interested in joining our team and excelling in the creative development of complex and challenging engineering solutions email your resume with cover letter to:

contactus@westbrookeng.com